MaxPlanckResearch seeks to keep partners and friends of the Max Planck Society up to date on the latest research conducted at the Max Planck Institutes. Four editions of the magazine are published in German each year, all of which are translated into English. At present, the English version has a circulation of 10,000 copies (MaxPlanckForschung: 78,000 copies). It is free of charge. None of the views and opinions expressed in MAXPLANCKRESEARCH may be interpreted as representing the official views of the Max Planck Society and its associated bodies. Reprint of texts is permitted only with the prior approval of the publisher. Photographic rights may be granted by agreement.

The Max-Planck-Gesellschaft zur Förderung der Wissenschaften e.V. (Max Planck Society) comprises 80 institutes and research facilities where around 21,800 employees, including some 5,400 permanently employed scientists, work and conduct research. The annual budget for 2012 is 1.46 billion euros. Research activities of the Max Planck Society focus on basic research in natural sciences and the humanities. The Max Planck Society is a non-profit organization registered under private law as an incorporated association. Its central decision-making body is the Senate, with members from the world of politics, the scientific community, and the professional public, providing for a well-balanced partnership.
